Brother Martin Chivige, SC

Please welcome Brother Martin Chivige, SC, who will be joining the local religious community and staff at St. Anne Mission on Wednesday, October 30. Brother Martin is a Brother of the Sacred Heart from Zimbabwe in southeastern Africa. He is 55 years old and has ministered in his native country and other parts of Africa as a teacher, master of novices, and provincial superior. Once he has adjusted to life in the U.S.A. and the Navajo Nation, Brother Martin will assist with various tasks in Klagetoh and Ganado.

Trunk or Treat

Members of the Klagetoh community will sponsor a Trunk or Treat event on the softball / volleyball field at Saint Anne Mission from 3 to 6 PM on Halloween Day. Hubbell Trading Post is also sponsoring a Trunk or Treat from 1 to 4 PM that day.

Student Volunteers

Our volunteers from Rhode Island had a wonderful visit from October 10-14. They helped a number of community members with tasks as varied as splitting and stacking firewood to filling a dangerous hole with dirt.

New(er) Van for St Anne Mission

---

A generous donor recently made it possible for Saint Anne Mission to trade-in its 2016 Dodge Grand Caravan for a slightly newer 2019 model. The 2016 vehicle had accumulated over 220,000 miles and was beginning to have some mechanical issues. The newer vehicle features more safety features including a backup camera and hands-free telephone capability. We hope it will serve the Mission and the parish's needs for several years to come.

Southwest Indian Foundation Christmas Food Baskets

Each December the Southwest Indian Foundation distributes Christmas Food Baskets to families on the Navajo Nation. Families that have not received a food basket in either of the past two years are eligible to receive one. If you know of an eligible family in need of help, please let Brother Charles or Mike know. We will have a limited number of baskets to distribute. Delivery is usually the first or second weekend in December.

November Feasts: Remembering Those Who Have Passed

At the start of November and throughout the month Catholics traditionally remember their friends and family members who have passed from this world. November 1, All Saints Day, is a day to remember all of the faithful who have passed and are with God in Heaven, even though they have not been officially recognized as such, or canonized, by the Church.

On the following day, All Souls Day is a day especially set aside to pray for the souls of the faithful departed who are being purified in Purgatory before entering into the Heavenly Kingdom.

Each November 9 the Church also celebrates the Feast of the Dedication of St. John Lateran, the cathedral of the Diocese of Rome. It's one of the four papal basilicas of Rome. This year's
